

The PE 100+ Association Newsletter, May 2010 – Web site enhancement

PE100+ Web site available in Thai Language

Due to the growing interest in the Thai market for the PE100+ activity and its technical messages, large part of the PE100+ web site is now available in Thai language, and especially the PE Pipe Model which guides designers and installers to the best usage of Polyethylene and PE100 pipes.
